

Why work exploration?

Members will have the opportunity to determine their level of interest in specific job fields through hands on work at the exploration site. They will be better able to decide what type of position would make a successful job match as they move towards community focus and permanent employment.

Benefits of working at Camp Blessing

Attending this work exploration site allows individuals to learn the responsibility of working in a camp environment preparing for the arrival of participants.

Participants Will Learn:

Reliability

Punctuality

Why it is important to be alert to your surroundings

Responsibility

Cooperation

Patience

Communication

And more....

Equal Opportunity in Service Delivery

No otherwise qualified applicant for service or program participant shall be excluded from participation, be denied benefits, or otherwise be subject to discrimination in any manner on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, sex, sexual identity, sexual orientation, religion, political beliefs or disability. No employee or other person shall intimidate, threaten, coerce, or discriminate against any otherwise qualified individual for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured under one of the applicable civil rights laws, or because they have made a complaint, testified, assisted, or participated in any manner in an investigation, proceeding or hearing under one of the applicable civil rights laws. This policy covers eligibility for access to service delivery, and to treatment in all of the programs, services and activities. All employees are expected to support the goals and programmatic activities relating to nondiscrimination in service delivery.

CAMP BLESSING

Camp Blessing

Learning the many different skills needed to prepare an environment for campers.

About Camp Blessing

Camp Blessing is a non-denominational, independent organization that originally started in 1963 as "an experiment in Christian living." They seek to help all people who attend their camps to come to a better understanding of what it means to live as a follower of Christ. Camps and retreats are held across the country and throughout the year, with a location in Wausau, Wisconsin.

Campers participate in Bible study, worship, work crews, group and individual recreation, and of course fun!! Camp Blessing is a place where people make lasting friends.

Camp Blessing is located at:
T12780 County Road Ww,
Wausau, WI 54403
715.675.3139
Website: www.campblessing.com

Attending this work exploration site allows individuals to learn the responsibility of working independently to prepare for a group to come to the site.

Tasks at Camp Blessing

Camps and retreats are scheduled throughout the year. Prevocational groups visit Camp Blessing to prepare for the upcoming events and clean-up after they are complete.

Duties may include:

- Light janitorial and basic cleaning
- Wiping down windows and elevators
- Outdoor clean-up
- Other duties as requested

If you are interested in volunteering at Camp Blessing or any of our other work exploration sites, please fill out the accompanying registration card indicating your areas of interest and return to Prevocational Services.
