

Why work exploration?

Members will have the opportunity to determine their level of interest in specific job fields through hands on work at the exploration site. They will be better able to decide what type of position would make a successful job match as they move towards community focus and permanent employment.

Benefits of working at the Humane Society of Marathon County

Attending this work exploration site allows individuals to learn the responsibility of working alongside animals and people.

Participants Will Learn:

- Reliability
- Punctuality
- How to be alert to your surroundings
- Responsibility
- Cooperation
- Patience
- Communication
- And more....

Equal Opportunity in Service Delivery

No otherwise qualified applicant for service or program participant shall be excluded from participation, be denied benefits, or otherwise be subject to discrimination in any manner on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, sex, sexual identity, sexual orientation, religion, political beliefs or disability. No employee or other person shall intimidate, threaten, coerce, or discriminate against any otherwise qualified individual for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured under one of the applicable civil rights laws, or because they have made a complaint, testified, assisted, or participated in any manner in an investigation, proceeding or hearing under one of the applicable civil rights laws. This policy covers eligibility for access to service delivery, and to treatment in all of the programs, services and activities. All employees are expected to support the goals and programmatic activities relating to nondiscrimination in service delivery.

HUMANE SOCIETY OF MARATHON COUNTY

About the Humane Society of Marathon County

The mission of the Humane Society of Marathon County is to relieve the suffering and abuse of animals and to foster an awareness of their importance in our community. They achieve that through leadership in compassionate care, placement, public education, humane services and by example.

The Humane Society of Marathon County finds homes for many animals including dogs, cats, rabbits, guinea pigs, reptiles, just to name a few.
