

Why work exploration?

Members will have the opportunity to determine their level of interest in specific job fields through hands on work at the exploration site. They will be better able to decide what type of position would make a successful job match as they move towards community focus and permanent employment.

Benefits of working at The Salvation Army

Attending this work exploration site allows individuals to learn the responsibility of working with individuals in our community that are less fortunate while also learning about confidentiality and punctuality.

Participants Will Learn:

Reliability

Punctuality

Why it is important to be alert to your surroundings

Responsibility

Cooperation

Patience

Communication

And more....

Equal Opportunity in Service Delivery

No otherwise qualified applicant for service or program participant shall be excluded from participation, be denied benefits, or otherwise be subject to discrimination in any manner on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, sex, sexual identity, sexual orientation, religion, political beliefs or disability. No employee or other person shall intimidate, threaten, coerce, or discriminate against any otherwise qualified individual for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured under one of the applicable civil rights laws, or because they have made a complaint, testified, assisted, or participated in any manner in an investigation, proceeding or hearing under one of the applicable civil rights laws. This policy covers eligibility for access to service delivery, and to treatment in all of the programs, services and activities. All employees are expected to support the goals and programmatic activities relating to nondiscrimination in service delivery.

DOING THE MOST GOOD™

About The Salvation Army

The Salvation Army of Marathon County provides programs and services which meet the physical, emotional, and spiritual needs of the community. They provide disaster assistance, as well as working to combat poverty, substance abuse, homelessness and hunger.

Salvation Army Programs are led by Salvation Army Officers. These officers are responsible to lead by assessing needs, delivering programs and directing ministries for our local community. From serving food to balancing the books, they function as the Executive Directors for the Wausau Salvation Army.

The Salvation Army is located at:
202 Callon St.
Wausau, WI 54401
